is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

- 2. Defendant has a lengthy criminal history, which includes multiple controlled substance charges, as well as assault charges. The instant charges were filed when he was on Department of Corrections (DOC) supervision. The AUSA proffers that defendant had stopped reporting, which occasioned a home visit from his probation officer. A safe in his residence contained methamphetamine and a firearm, together with indicia of ownership, and other firearms and ammunition were found in the residence. DOC reported to Pretrial Service that defendant absconded from supervision on three occasions and committed new law violations during the approximately two years he was supervised from 2006 to 2008.
- 3. Taken as a whole, the record does not effectively rebut the presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- 1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the pupose of an appearance in connection
